

Fluids System Assignment Rubric

---

	Level 4	Level 3	Level 2	Level 1
Knowledge and Understanding	Student completely and correctly identifies the fluid used and how it is used in the system in a detailed way, outlining each component and its purpose.	Student completely and correctly identifies the fluid used and how it is used in the system outlining each component.	Student correctly identifies the fluid used and how it is used in the system in a general way.	Student correctly identifies the fluid used and how it is used in the system in a very general way.
Thinking and Investigation	The student insightfully identifies why this particular type of system is used and at least 2 important disadvantages to using this system.	The student identifies why this particular type of system is used and at least 1 important disadvantage to using this system.	The student identifies why this particular type of system is used and at least 1 disadvantage to using this system.	The student identifies why this particular type of system is used.